

K K (PG) College, Etawah

B.A. in Sociology Course Outcomes

Program Outcome : The course outcomes of B.A. in Sociology introduce fundamental and contemporary concepts, enhancing students' understanding and analytical skills. It develops a scientific temperament, enriches vocabulary, helps distinguish between commonsense and sociological knowledge and provides an understanding of Indian society.

Class	Course Name	Outcome
B.A. 1 st Sem	Introduction to Basic Concepts of Sociology	Introduces key sociological concepts, develops analytical skills and scientific temperament and helps distinguish between commonsense and sociological knowledge.
B.A. 2 nd Sem	Course – 1 : Society in India: Structure, Organization &amp; Change.	Introduces Indian society, its continuity and linkages, and develops understanding to analyze contemporary Indian society.
B.A. 2 nd Sem	Course – 2 : Writing skill development on topics of Contemporary Sociological Importance (Practical)	Develops writing, analytical skills, and sociological vocabulary, preparing students for media, journalism and related fields.
B.A. 3 rd Sem	Social Change and Social Movement	Introduces social change and movements, develops critical understanding of societal dynamics, and promotes constructive social insights.
B.A. 4 th Sem	Course – 1 : Social Problem &amp; Social Development in India	Introduces emerging social problems, development issues and deviant behavior in Indian society, creating awareness and understanding.
B.A. 4 th Sem	Course – 2 : Project on Sustainable Society	Introduces emerging social problems and development issues, and builds practical research skills with understanding of sustainability and policies.
B.A. 5 th Sem	Course – 1 : Pioneers of Western Sociological thought	Introduces key Western sociological thinkers and their ideas, developing theoretical understanding and analytical perspective.
B.A. 5 th Sem	Course – 2 : Research Methodology in Social Science	Introduces research methods, develops understanding of research problems and techniques, and promotes scientific and humanistic inquiry in sociology
B.A. 5 th Sem	Course – 3 : Practical Application of Research Methodology / Project Work	Provides practical exposure to fieldwork and research, developing empirical skills for aspiring social scientists.

B.A. 6 th Sem	Course – 1 : Pioneers of Indian Sociology	Introduces Indian sociologists, their approaches, and traditions, and develops understanding of the history of sociology in India.
B.A. 6 th Sem	Course – 2 : Gender and Society	Promotes gender sensitivity, understanding of key gender issues, and encourages ideas for gender equity.
B.A. 6 th Sem	Course – 3 : Project, Field Work/ Case Study/Project Work	Develops practical research skills through project work, fieldwork, and case studies, enhancing analytical ability and real-world understanding.